

National 5 Maths
SQA 2017 Specimen
Paper 2 Question 2

There are 3×10^5 platelets per millilitre of blood.

On average, a person has 5.5 litres of blood.

On average, how many platelets does a person have in their blood?

Give your answer in scientific notation.

2

Answer:

$$1.65 \times 10^9$$